Osage River Improvement.

We are more than gratified to see the people of Jefferson Co. opening their eyes and waking up to the great importance of improving the Osage river as a most important auxiliary feeder of the capital of the State of Missouri. Four years ago and since we urged many ways, by which this river could be improved without much expence to the people of the state; one was by cutting a canal, to turn the waters of Kaw river into the Osage river, to increase the volume of water.

This canal to be done by the general government. To do this would open up a market west as well as east for the vast amount of timber and mineral within the limits of this valley; not only would this accommodate the people of this valley, but it would connect the capitals of two great states by water—Topeka and Jefferson City. The latter place should offer such inducements as would invite all the wealth of this valley, to feed her coffers in the way of manufacturers, &c.

The surplus convict labor, could be employed to build ARKANSAS dams or LOCKS AND DAMS to create slack water; after which was done, a memorial to Congress would no doubt be favorably considered and the state reimbursed for all improvement done to the river. These are suggestions, and many others we have urged within the last six years, and we trust Mayor Cox and other men of public spirit in Jefferson City will go on with the work they have undertaken, by appointing delegates to the convention of Board of Trade, and that the Board may induce Congress to take action for the improvement of these water-ways, which will be of incalculable value to the people.

Aurora Picnic.

Last Thursday we attended Aurora Springs, at which place, was advertised "the last picnic of the season."

This morning opened out bright and beautiful; in company with Uncle Peter Thompson, his most excellent wife, sister-in-law, and Mr. Currence and family, from Cooper county, we with our better half made a visit to the great mammouth cave, in the forenoon; returning to the springs at 1 p.m. we found the park grounds well filled with visitors, candy and cake stands, the platforms were crowded with the elite, music and dancing. All seemed to be joy and full of frolic. We remained till 3:30 p.m. then wended our way to the capital of Miller county.

PEASANT ET. PARAGRAPHS.

Sky clear, prospect of frost soon.

The meeting of the Literary society of the 21st, was a perfect success. The meeting was called to order by the President "in the chair." The minutes of last meeting was read and approved. The programme for the evening was then disposed of in regular order, commencing with a song by the Society, then came a series of declamations, select reading and dialogues. Mr. Arrell Eddy made an extempore speech the subject being given him by Prof. Kemper was the "Progress of mankind." He delivered a splendid address. He set forth the progress of mankind in very good language. We then had some fine instrumental music by R. G. Spelling and Fremont Clark; a few minutes recess was then given; after which we had some dialogues and fine music. By the request of the President, Mr. Greg of St. Louis made a few remarks. The meeting then adjourned.

Mr. Greg respectfully representing a clothing and notion firm of St. Louis was in town Sunday night and part of Monday.

Mr. Jeff Swanson has been sick for several days, his life now hangs suspended by a thread; we hope he will recover.

It is not too late for green beans yet.

Married.

GOLDEN—FREEMAN—On last Sunday evening our young towneeman, Wm. Golden with Miss Lou Freeman took a buggy ride in an easterly direction; having procured a marriage license the day before; the news soon found its way in our quiet little town that Wm. and Lou had gone to E. Q. Buster's to have the marriage vow solemnized. In two hours time the happy couple returned enshrouded with smiles and blushes, bespeaking the truth of madam rumor; Wm. and Lou were one—husband and wife. Their numerous friends and BROTHERS fraternity extend the warmest congratulations, wishing the happy couple a long life and prosperous journey. Wedding cake acknowledged.

G. MILLERY!

Miller Co. Sunday School Convention.

By order of President of the Miller county S. S. Con., Mr. Austin, we are authorized to announce to the public and all who are interested in the S.
